"Jay's addition to our Advisory Board provides us with significant capital markets strategies expertise that is invaluable as we continue to execute on our growth strategy as a recently listed public company," said Shahan Ohanessian, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of VenHub. "Jay has helped shepherd thousands of companies through their listings process and early days as a public company and has been at the center of some of the most consequential capital markets transactions of the past two decades. We are very pleased to have him working closely with us as we work to deepen our relationships with the institutional and financial community."

Heller currently serves as Chief Executive Officer of K Lab AI. Previously, he served as Head of Capital Markets at Nasdaq from 2012, leading a team focused on the facilitation of new listings on the exchange. Under his leadership, the team executed more than 3,000 IPOs and listings, including VenHub's recent listing on the exchange in January 2026. Prior to his role as Head of Capital Markets, he served as Senior Managing Director at Nasdaq's Market Intelligence Desk and was Head of Institutional Trading and Sales at American Capital Partners. Earlier in his career, he worked as an equity trader at Pershing and a market maker at NDB Capital Markets, a subsidiary of Deutsche Bank.

"VenHub represents exactly the kind of innovative, high-growth company that the public markets are built to support," said Heller. "I look forward to contributing to the team as they continue to scale their autonomous retail business and engage the broader investment community."
